

NO:	NAME	ADDRESS	POST CODE	CONTACT DETAILS	SERVICES
50	Admiral Nurses	42 Westbourne Park Road, London	W2 5PH	020 3219 0911	The service is available Kensington & Chelsea and Westminster residents. Has an open referral system. Memory assessment service can be provided.
5	Age UK - Kensington & Chelsea Dementia Team	1 Thorpe Close London	W10 5XL	020 8960 8137, information@aukc.org.uk , http://www.ageuk.org.uk/kensingtonandchelsea/activities--events/dementia-service/	One to one support from dementia support workers, volunteers, befrienders. Twice monthly - My Memories Cafes (and also a bi-monthly weekend café). Monthly Dementia Outings. An 'Exercise for the Mind Group' run for people with Dementia. A 'Memory Management Group' run to help people with dementia learn strategies to manage their memory. A Men's Group for men with dementia. A Young at Heart Group for younger people with dementia or mild cognitive impairment which is run in conjunction with the KCW Memory Service. Can be referred by any health and social care professionals and the service is available for Kensington and Chelsea residents.
7	Age UK - Kensington & Chelsea	Unit 24 Acklam Workshops 10 Acklam Road	W10 5QZ	Holly Corlett, 020 3219 0910, hcorlett@aukc.org.uk , http://www.ageuk.org.uk/kensingtonandchelsea/	A Carers Support Group with dementia specific sessions. A 'Variety Group' which a service user forum for people to give us feedback and help us to deliver our services in meaningful ways. At Home Care service with dementia specialist carers. Can be referred by your GP and the services are available for Kensington and Chelsea and Westminster residents.
44	Age UK - Kensington & Chelsea outreach services	1 Thorpe Close, London	W10 4XL	020 8969 9105, information@aukc.org.uk	Range of services for older people (55+) and their carers, friends and family. Information and advice service. Quarterly newsletter. Home bathing service. Personal care and domestic tasks. Dementia outreach service. Annual tea dance. Theatre ticket scheme. Health awareness seminars. Activities and a cafe for people with dementia and their carers. Volunteers for befriending and practical help.
3	Alan Morkill House	88 St Marks Rd, London	W10 6BY	020 8964 1123, manageram@goldcarehomes.com , http://www.goldcarehomes.com/alan-morkill-house.html	A residential Care home for older people and those who have dementia. Can be referred by Hospital, Social services and self-referrals and the services are available for Kensington & Chelsea and Westminster residents.
43	Arts4dementia	Veronica Franklin Gould, Chief Executive, Arts 4 Dementia, 20 Charlwood Road, London	SW15 1PE	020 8780 5217, info@arts4dementia.org.uk	Helping people to develop activities at arts venues to re-energise and inspire people in the early stages of dementia and their carers. They liaise with arts organisation education departments, memory services care teams and other agencies including the Alzheimer's Society, Age UK, Dementia UK and the Princess Royal Trust for Carers, to help set up and facilitate creative projects at arts venues, for people living with dementia in the community and companions.

18	Culture Dementia UK	Stanmore Business and Innovation Centre, Stanmore Place, Howard Road, Stanmore	HA7 1BT	0800 014 8682	Culture Dementia UK was previously known as Friends of African/Caribbean Carers and Sufferers of Dementia (FACCSD). They were set up to support carers and sufferers of dementia among the African/Caribbean community. They visit sufferers in care homes and in your own homes, befriend sufferers and support them, give talks on Dementia from the African/Caribbean perspective, try to educate the African/Caribbean community, act as an advocate, provide respite care to carers of sufferers of Dementia.
2	Health Vision	Appleton Business Centre, 139 King Street, London	W6 9JG	020 7372 2895, carers@healthvision.co.uk, http://www.healthvisionuk.co.uk/	A CQC regulated home care provider with services Tri-borough, providing care 24 hours a day for people who require assistance to live independently at home - either short visits a few days a week or full time live-in care. Can be referred by Local Council and GPs. The service is available for Kensington & Chelsea and residents
9	Home Instead	Unit 1z1, Cooper House, 2 Michael Road, London	SW6 2AD	020 7736 8777, tracey.shehan@homeinstead.co.uk, http://www.homeinstead.co.uk/Apply_Now.do?region=London	A home care service covering K&C and most of Westminster. The key differences between them and most others is that we visit for a minimum of an hour at a time and always send the same caregiver (barring holiday or illness) which is important for people with cognitive impairment. Dementia trained carers assist people with Alzheimer's & other dementias and our training is externally certified by City & Guilds. Can be self-referred. The services are available for Kensington & Chelsea and Westminster residents.
6	Kensington & Chelsea Memory Café /The Dementia Adviser Service	42 Westbourne Park Road	W2 5PH	03701 924 265, Jasmine Scott, jasmine.scott@housing21.co.uk , 03701 924 265	A group based support for people with dementia and their families/supporters (for people in Westminster and K&C). Cafes provide a warm, friendly environment as well as info from local health and carer related services. Drop-in (Memory Café). The service is available for Kensington & Chelsea and Westminster residents.
11	Miranda Barry Centre	367A Fulham Road, London	SW10 9TN	0207 349 6890, sue.suther@rbkc.gov.uk , http://www.rbkc.gov.uk/az/az.aspx?orgid=656	To provide personal and individualised care for people with complex needs (over 65's). Can be referred by Social services and the service is available for Kensington & Chelsea residents.
8	Kensington & Chelsea My Memories Café South	New horizons centre, Cadogan Street, Guinness Trust Estate, London	SW3 2PF	020 8960 8137	My Memories Café aims to provide group based support for people with memory difficulties and their friends and family. The cafes are held monthly and have been up and running since September 2009. They provide a warm and friendly environment for people with memory difficulties and their friends and family to socialise and relax.Can be self-referred to the service. Service is available for Kensington and Chelsea residents.
47	Kensington & Chelsea My Memories Café North	Kensington Park Road	W11 2PN	020 8960 8138	My Memories Café aims to provide group based support for people with memory difficulties and their friends and family. The cafes are held monthly and have been up and running since September 2009. They provide a warm and friendly environment for people with memory difficulties and their friends and family to socialise and relax.Can be self-referred to the service. Service is available for Kensington and Chelsea residents.

4	Pepper Pot Centre	1a Thorpe Close, Ladbroke Grove, London	W10 5XL	020 8968 6940, Carla@pepperpotdaycentre.co.uk, http://www.pepperpotcentre.org/	Provide reminiscence therapy / activities such as photography and Art and Crafts. They have started to "GROW YOUR OWN HERBS" where the member has their choice of herb and cares for the growing plants. Can be referred by Social services, Drop in session is also available. The service is available for Hammersmith & Fulham, Kensington & Chelsea and Westminster residents.
1	Positive Age Centre	Peabody Estate Dalgarno Way N. Kensington, London	W10 65JN	020 8960 4853, jyeomans@openage.org.uk, www.openage.co.uk	Is part of Open Age, providing a range of health and creative activities to keep people of 50+ active, fit and healthy. Drop in session through membership. Available for Kensington & Chelsea residents
10	Quest	85 Clarendon Road, London	W11 4QX	020 7792 8434, http://www.carehome.co.uk/day_care_centre.cfm/id/65432192274	The Quest as it is affectionately known provides 100 places per week for older people suffering with dementia or mental health problems. It offers a varied programme of activities, with the underlying aim of maintaining or restoring independent living skills - including the Lunch Club, an optician, benefit advice, hairdressing, arts and crafts, bingo, and trips to the theatre. Can be referred by Social services. The service is available for Kensington and Chelsea residents.
42	Red & Yellow Care	33 Parkgate Road, London	SW11 4NP	020 3700 0163, contact@redandyellowcare.com	Red & Yellow Care is an independent healthcare company offering specialist secondary care to people with dementia or suspected dementia. They offer both a diagnostic service and a post-diagnostic care and support service. The services are available for Hammersmith & Fulham, Kensington and Chelsea and Westminster residents.
33	Thames Brook	2 Dovehouse Street, London	SW3 6LA	020 7352 1004, Margaret.lipnicka@rbkc.gov.uk , http://www.carehome.co.uk/carehome.cfm/searchazref/20001005THAA	Care home with nursing (local authority owned). Available for Hammersmith and Fulham residents. Can be self-referred
12	The Second Half Centre (ST Charles Hospital)	St Charles Centre for Health and Wellbeing, Exmoor Street, London	W10 6DZ	0208 962 5500, info@thesecondhalfcentre.com , http://www.thesecondhalfcentre.com/membership/	Membership: Once you're a member, you'll be able to take advantage of the facilities and book classes including IT, Gardening, Cookery & Nutrition, Theatre, and exercise. Come down and say hello at The Second Half Centre where we have membership forms pre-printed to join. Register free to become a member. Can join online, membership is free, book through email. The service is available for Kensington and Chelsea residents
NO:	NAME	ADDRESS	POST CODE	CONTACT DETAILS	SERVICES

Please see Dementia map for colour coding