

NO:	NAME	ADDRESS	POST CODE	CONTACT DETAILS	SERVICES
1	Albany Rehabilitation Unit			Fax: 020 3448 3758	They welcome referrals from therapists working in the acute and community settings. They require therapy and medical reports (GP for community based referrals) to be submitted with all referrals to their Linkworkers via the ARU ward fax number: 020 3448 3758
2	Alexandra rehabilitation unit	Princess Louise Kensington (PLK), Nursing Home , Pangbourne Avenue , London	W10 6DL	020 8962 6101	Rehabilitation services. Alexandra Rehabilitation Unit is a bedded rehabilitation unit within the Princess Louise Nursing Home in Kensington. It helps patients improve their strength, achieve greater independence and gain the confidence to return home and for their day to day living. The length of time patients stay varies according to their individual goals, and a typical stay could be anything between one to six weeks. Referrals can be made by hospitals and GPs
3	Chelsea and Westminster Hospital	Stroke Services, Nell Gwynne Ward 4th Floor, Lift Bank B, Chelsea and Westminster Hospital, 369 Fulham Road, London	SW10 9NH	020 3315 8064	Stroke and support services. The Stroke team provides acute care and early rehabilitation to patients in Kensington and Chelsea and Westminster. The discharge team provides advice and support to you and your carers about getting you home from hospital safely and without delay. When you leave hospital, Social services may be able to help with some activities such as washing, dressing, shopping and housework. Referrals can be made by GPs, Other hospitals, London ambulance and No self-referrals
4	Ellesmere Rehabilitation Unit	Ellesmere House, 9 Nightingale Place, London	SW10 9NG	020 7352 5861	Rehabilitation and support. Ellesmere Rehabilitation Unit is a bedded rehabilitation unit for older people in Chelsea to help patients improve their strength, achieve greater independence and the gain the confidence to return home. Referrals can be made by GPs and Hospitals
5	Kensington & Chelsea Stroke Support Services			0207 361 2600, intermediatecare@nhs.net For information about the dysphasia support service and peer mentoring scheme: Contact the community stroke services on 020 7349 2339	Stroke and rehabilitation services. Early supported discharge for stroke, community rehabilitation, stroke reviews
6	Speakability	240 City Road, London	EC1V 2PR	020 7566 1516, www.speakability.org.uk	Speakability is the national charity that supports and empowers people with Aphasia to overcome the barriers they face by: supporting people with Aphasia and their carers through its Information Service, national network of Self-Help Groups and programme of activities, influencing individuals, organisations and statutory bodies in order to improve services for people living with Aphasia

					Stroke advice and information. The Stroke Association helps patients and their families to prepare for the inevitable changes brought about by Stroke. Offer information about local groups and services in the community. Also give advice on getting help from statutory organisations
7	Stroke Association	Stroke Association House, 240 City Road, London	EC1V 2PR	Helpline: 020 7566 0300, info@stroke.org.uk
8	Stroke4carers			www.stroke4carers.org	Free online Stroke advice and information. Stroke4Carers is a website for unpaid stroke carers, family and friends of anyone affected by stroke illness. Stroke4carers aims to give you free online advice, information and support whenever or wherever you need it
9	Thamesbrook Rehabilitation Unit	Thamesbrook, 2 Dovehouse Street, London	SW3 6LA	020 7352 7623, social.services@rbkc.gov.uk	Rehabilitation and support. Provides services to people over 65 years old who live in Kensington and Chelsea, help to enable them to regain their independence and make informed choices about their care arrangements. Referrals can only made by social services
10	The South team, World End Health Centre	529 Kings Road, London	SW10 0UD	020 7361 2600	Rehabilitation and support. Provides rehabilitation service to people over 16 years and registered with a GP in the area covered. The team helps clients and carers to maximize independence in everyday activities including mobility, communication, work and leisure. This may include advice on getting around, such as improving wheelchair use, advice on activities like shopping and making meals and advice on preventing accidents such as falls. Provide support for patients to remain at home and to prevent unnecessary admission to hospital. Referrals can be made by GPs, Nurses, Self-referrals are accepted, Single point referral centre (020 7361 2600) and Social workers
NO:	NAME	ADDRESS	POST CODE	CONTACT DETAILS	SERVICES