

NO:	NAME	ADDRESS	POST CODE	CONTACT DETAILS	SERVICES
17	Advocacy Project	73 St. Charles Square, London	W10 6EJ	020 8962 8695	Provide trained advocates to support older people in expressing choices about matters affecting their everyday lives. Self-referrals are accepted. The service is available for Hammersmith & Fulham, Kensington & Chelsea and Westminster residents
22	Age UK Westminster	25 Nutford Place, London	W1H 5YQ	020 3004 5610, www.acwestminster.org.uk , enquiries@acwestminster.org.uk	Age UK is a national charity (formerly Age Concern and Help the Aged). Age UK Westminster offers a number of specialist advice and home support services for older people including befriending. The service also provides a number of advice and drop in sessions across the month in Westminster at community hubs, information centres and the libraries. The service is available for Westminster residents. Open hours: 10am-2pm, Mon to Fri
23	Alzheimer's Society (helpline)			0300 222 1122, www.alzheimers.org.uk	The Alzheimer's Society provides reliable and up to date information to help with every aspect of living with dementia: from understanding a diagnosis and assessment, to dealing with the financial challenges that maybe encountered. The Alzheimer's Society produces more than a hundred free factsheets about dementia which answer many of the most common questions, and they publish a monthly magazine as well as brochures and leaflets. The services are available for Hammersmith & Fulham, Kensington & Chelsea and Westminster residents.
43	Arts4dementia	Veronica Franklin Gould, Chief Executive, Arts 4 Dementia, 20 Charlwood Road, London	SW15 1PE	020 8780 5217, info@arts4dementia.org.uk	Helping people to develop activities at arts venues to re-energise and inspire people in the early stages of dementia and their carers. They liaise with arts organisation education departments, memory services care teams and other agencies including the Alzheimer's Society, Age UK, Dementia UK and the Princess Royal Trust for Carers, to help set up and facilitate creative projects at arts venues, for people living with dementia in the community and companions.
18	Athlone House	7a Woodfield Road, London	W9 2BA	020 7266 6700, http://www.carehome.co.uk/carehome.cfm/searchazref/72157	NHS Trust provides continuing care and rehabilitation services. Can referred to the service by GP, Local health and social care services. The services are available for Hammersmith & Fulham, Kensington & Chelsea and Westminster residents.
41	Bluebird Care Westminster & City of London	Ground Floor, 7 Hatherley Street	SW1P 2QT	020 7976 6163, westminster@bluebirdcare.co.uk , http://www.bluebirdcare.co.uk/westminster	Services includes Care for older people, Care for people living with Dementia & Alzheimer's, Live-in care (24 hours care) or overnight support (both as an alternative to residential care - for further information, please see the Case Study section below), Care for people with a physical disability, Support for people with Learning difficulties including Autism and more

31	Butterworth Centre	Hospital of St John & Elizabeth, 36 Circus Road, London	NW8 9SE	020 7078 3830, http://cnwl.nhs.uk/service/butterworth-centre/	Butterworth Centre provides continuing care services for older people who have advanced cognitive impairment or severe and enduring mental health needs. Can be referred to the service by GPs and Social service. The service is available for Westminster residents.
30	Chelsea & Westminster Hospital	369 Fulham Rd, London	SW10 9NH	020 3315 8000, http://www.chelwest.nhs.uk/	Provide services for patients affected by Dementia. Now have a Dementia Case Manager - Sarah Bryan. Can be referred to the service by your GP. The service is available for Hammersmith & Fulham, Kensington & Chelsea and Westminster.
18	Culture Dementia UK	Stanmore Business and Innovation Centre, Stanmore Place, Howard Road, Stanmore	HA7 1BT	0800 014 8682	Culture Dementia UK was previously known as Friends of African/Caribbean Carers and Sufferers of Dementia (FACCSD). They were set up to support carers and sufferers of dementia among the African/Caribbean community. They visit sufferers in care homes and in your own homes, befriend sufferers and support them, give talks on Dementia from the African/Caribbean perspective, try to educate the African/Caribbean community, act as an advocate, provide respite care to carers of sufferers of Dementia.
29	Dementia Peer Support Workers	Kensington & Chelsea and Westminster Memory Services office, 42 Westbourne Park Road Kensington & Chelsea, London	W2 5PH	0203 219 0910, Helen Efozia: h.efozia@nhs.net	Provide services for patients affected by Dementia. The service is available for Kensington & Chelsea and Westminster residents.
48	Dementia Resource Centre	42 Westbourne Park, Road London	W2 5PH	020 7641 2500	Westminster's new Memory and Dementia Resource Centre provides health and social care services for residents in the borough living with dementia. Also provides Memory assessment service.
49	Dementia Voice Nurse	42 Westbourne Park, Road London	W2 5PH	0207 641 7694, morejoy.saineti@housing21.co.uk	It can be increasingly difficult to care for those with dementia nearing the end of their lives. Dementia Voice Nurse can help you manage by providing expert care and support. They also work with other local services to ensure that you get the right level of support, services and equipment.
27	Jewish Care Direct			020 8922 2222, jcdrequest@jcare.org , http://www.jewishcare.org/helpline	Like all of London, Westminster is a diverse borough catering for the cultural and religious needs of many people. There are a number of different groups and services available depending on individual preferences, local libraries can provide more information. The service is available for Hammersmith & Fulham, Kensington & Chelsea and Westminster.
16	Norton House	10 Arneway St, Westminster, London	SW1P 2BG	0800 690 6797, contact@anchor.org.uk , http://www.carehome.co.uk/carehome.cfm/searchazref/10001005NORC	Residential Care Home. The patients can access the service by GP and local services referrals. The service is available for Hammersmith & Fulham, Kensington & Chelsea and Westminster.
13	Open Age	Thorpe Close, London	W10 5XL	020 8964 1900, mail@openage.co.uk , http://www.openage.org.uk/	A wide range of physical, creative and mentally stimulating activities to enable older people to develop new skills, and encourage social interaction, thus helping reduce loneliness, isolation and depression. Self-referrals are accepted. The service is available for Hammersmith & Fulham, Kensington & Chelsea and Westminster.

14	Pullen Day Centre	Garden Terrace, 7- 9 Moreton Street, London	SW1V 2WP	0370 192 4000, http://www.housingcare.org/service/ser-info-6018-tresham-dementi.aspx	Support service providing door to door transport, lunches, assisted bathing, personal care ,escorted outings and shopping trips, and a range of activities, and serviced activities programme, like exercises, singing, quizzes. Can be referred to the service by social services. The service is available for Westminster residents.
42	Red & Yellow Care	33 Parkgate Road, London	SW11 4NP	020 3700 0163, contact@redandyellowcare.com	Red & Yellow Care is an independent healthcare company offering specialist secondary care to people with dementia or suspected dementia. They offer both a diagnostic service and a post-diagnostic care and support service. The services are available for Hammersmith & Fulham, Kensington and Chelsea and Westminster residents.
19	St Georges Nursing home	61, St. George's Square, London	SW1V 3QR	Mrs E Kerins-McManus, 020 7821 9001, http://www.carehome.co.uk/carehome.cfm/searchazref/20001005GEOA	Short and long stay Nursing Home. Can be referred to the service by your GP. The service is available for Westminster residents
26	The Abbey Centre	34 Great Smith St, London	SW1P 3BU	ian.corpuz@theabbeycentre.org.uk , 020 7222 0303, www.theabbeycentre.org.uk	Run low cost opportunities and caters for a variety of levels and individual needs. The service is available for Hammersmith & Fulham, Kensington & Chelsea and Westminster.
28	Westminster Arts	Institute of Contemporary Arts: 12 Carlton House Terrace, London	SW1Y 5AH	Kathryn Gilfoy 020 7321 2702, kathryn@westminsterarts.org.uk , http://westminsterarts.org.uk/	'Resonate' is the core arts programme for older people with dementia and mental health problems, including people with young onset dementia. They provide a range of art projects and hands-on creative opportunities as well as supported visits to galleries and theatres - benefiting people in day centres, residential homes, the community and people in their own homes. They are currently offering Creative Befrienders: 1-1 befriending experiences for people living in K&C and North Westminster.
24	Welfare benefits			0800 882200, http://www.westminstercab.org.uk/get_advice.htm	There will be financial implications as the needs of the person with dementia change. This may be because the person with dementia has given up work, or because they need greater physical care and support. Some of these benefits will be for the person with dementia and others will be for their carers - some are available irrespective of income. The service is available for Hammersmith & Fulham, Kensington & Chelsea and Westminster residents
15	Westminster Care Association	Beethoven Centre, 3rd Ave, London	W10 4JL	020 8825 1067, beethovencentre@a2dominion.co.uk , http://www.a2dominion.co.uk/rte.asp?id=1762	The Beethoven Centre provides an affordable resource for residents to hire, as well as delivering a variety of affordable weekly activities. Drop-In on Mondays. The service is available for Hammersmith & Fulham, Kensington & Chelsea and Westminster residents
45	Westminster dementia adviser	Westminster Memory and Dementia Resource Centre, 42 Westbourne Park Road, London	W2 5PH	0370 192 4265, Terezie Holmerova; terezie.holmerova@housing21.co.uk	The Dementia Adviser Service provides advice, information and guidance on all aspects of living well with dementia tailored to individual needs. A Dementia Adviser specialising in dementia who works with people through all stages of dementia, pointing them to additional help and support as needed. Provides support to local communities to help them understand more about dementia to encourage earlier diagnosis. All residents with dementia who are living in Westminster can use the service. Will respond to all contacts made to the service within 2 working days and offer to visited people at home if required. The Dementia Adviser coordinates the 6 Steps Forward Seminars for relatives and friends of people living with dementia.

20	Westminster Memory Café North	42 Westbourne Park Road	W2 5PH	03701 924 265/07540 502 379, Jasmine Scott, jasmine.scott@housing21.co.uk	A friendly & supportive environment where you can meet socially with other people and hear from professional services. Sessions held every month. Focusing on support and service for people with dementia, their families and carers in Westminster.
46	Westminster Memory Café South	Victoria Medical Centre, 29 Upper Tachbrook St, London	SW1V 1SN	0370 192 4265, Terezie Holmerova; terezie.holmerova@housing21.co.uk	A friendly & supportive environment where you can meet socially with other people and hear from professional services. Sessions held every month. Focusing on support and service for people with dementia, their families and carers in Westminster.
21	Westminster Senior Passport			020 7641 1444, www.westminster.gov.uk/seniorpassport	The Senior Passport is a general information service for older people living in Westminster. The service offers help and guidance to make it easier for older people and their carers to access council services, health services offered by NHS Westminster, and social and community activities. You can get referrals from your GP and social services. The service is available for Westminster residents (other boroughs will be signposted accordingly)
NO:	NAME	ADDRESS	POST CODE	CONTACT DETAILS	SERVICES

Please see Dementia map for colour coding